On behalf of Villanova University President the Rev. Peter M. Donohue, OSA, PhD, '75 CLAS, Joyce E. A. Russell, PhD, The Helen and William O'Toole Dean of the Villanova School of Business, our Founder, Charles E. Zech, PhD, Professor Emeritus, and our wonderful partners at the Pontifical Lateran University, we would like to extend you a warm, Augustinian welcome to the 2nd Annual International Festival of Creativity in Church Management.

The International Festival of Creativity in Church Management aims to explore new pastoral ways to proclaim the Gospel in a changing world. The fundamental purpose of the event is to create a community to research, exchange and compare best practices in Church Management. As we work to develop new solutions to Church Management challenges and explore the Entrepreneurial Spirit in a Mission Driven Church, the Festival will utilize multiple formats to maximize creativity, including multi-perspective panel discussions, research presentations, interactive table discussions, social experiences, and most importantly, prayer and the Eucharist.

As an institution with a rich history of supporting innovation and problem solving, Villanova is honored to host this event that champions the importance of creativity. Breaking the mold and being creative is a key skill for personal, social and economic development, and is central to Villanova's academic mission. For more than 175 years, Villanova University has been committed to excellence and distinction in the discovery, dissemination and creation of knowledge—all of which we are confident will occur during the Festival.

If you need anything at all during your days on campus, please do not hesitate to let us know. We are so grateful you chose to be a part of this select group of researchers and practitioners and look forward to the ways the Spirit will unleash the creativity in this community over these next three days.

Late have I loved you, beauty so old and so new; late have I loved you.
And see, you were within and I was in the external world and sought you there, and in my unlovely state I plunged into those lovely created things that you made.

You were with me, and I was not with you.
The lovely things kept me far from you,
though if they did not have their existence in you,
they had no existence at all.

You called and cried out loud and shattered my deafness.
You were radiant and resplendent, you put to flight my blindness.
You were fragrant, and I drew in my breath and now pant after you.

I tasted you, and I feel but hunger and thirst for you.
You touched me, and I am set on fire to attain the peace that is yours.
